

AP[®] Latin

Clarifications and Corrections

About the Advanced Placement Program[®] (AP[®])

The Advanced Placement Program[®] has enabled millions of students to take college-level courses and earn college credit, advanced placement, or both, while still in high school. AP Exams are given each year in May. Students who earn a qualifying score on an AP Exam are typically eligible, in college, to receive credit, placement into advanced courses, or both. Every aspect of AP course and exam development is the result of collaboration between AP teachers and college faculty. They work together to develop AP courses and exams, set scoring standards, and score the exams. College faculty review every AP teacher's course syllabus. We commit to support educators and communities in their efforts to make AP courses widely available, advancing students in their plans for college and careers.

Course and Exam Description Clarifications and Corrections

Implemented as of September 2025

- An addition was made to the part B instructions for Project Passage Short Essay free-response questions 4 and 5 in the "Course Project" section (p. 169–210) and to part B instructions for free-response questions 3 and 4/5 in the Sample Exam Questions and associated Scoring Guidelines found in the "Exam Information" section (pp. 223–267).

Implemented as of June 2025

- In the Course and Exam Description front matter, the "About AP" section was updated to include career preparation alongside college preparation as anchors of the AP Program. The Advanced Placement Program is committed to expanding the invitation to students to challenge themselves with college-level coursework and career preparation.
- The Checkpoint instructions and the Scoring Rubrics found in the "Course Project" section (pp. 169–210) were revised for clarity.
- Minor formatting and typographical corrections were made to the Sample Exam Questions and associated Scoring Guidelines found in the "Exam Information" section (pp. 223–267) to improve clarity and consistency.
- Minor formatting and typographical corrections were made to both the "Full Required Latin Vocabulary List" and the "Latin Vocabulary List by Reading" (pp. 276–336) to improve clarity and consistency.

Forthcoming

- There are no forthcoming clarifications or corrections for the AP Latin Course and Exam Description.