ART HISTORY

SECTION II

Time—2 hours

6 Questions

Directions: You have two hours to answer the six questions in this section. Questions 1 and 2 are long essay questions, and you are advised to spend one hour to answer these two questions. Questions 3 through 6 are short essay questions, and you are advised to spend 15 minutes on each. The proctor will announce when each time interval has elapsed, but you may proceed freely from one question to another.

Read the questions carefully. You can receive full credit only by directly answering all aspects of the question.

You may use any of the blank space provided with the questions in this orange booklet for scratch work or to organize your responses. However, no credit will be given for anything written in this booklet. You will only earn credit for what you write in the separate Free Response booklet.

When providing your answers in the Free Response booklet, you must answer each question in essay form. An outline or bulleted list is not acceptable.

Note: This exam uses the chronological designations B.C.E. (before the common era) and C.E. (common era). These designations correspond to B.C. (before Christ) and A.D. (anno Domini), which are used in some art history resources.

1. The work shown is the Reliquary of Sainte-Foy, a sculptural representation of a Christian holy figure, created in France circa the late tenth through early eleventh century.

Select and completely identify another work that serves as a representation of a holy figure or deity from a different religion. You may select a work from the list below or any other relevant work of art.

Describe the subject matter of both the Reliquary of Sainte-Foy and your selected work.

Using specific visual evidence from each work, explain at least two similarities and/or differences in how the representation of the holy figure or deity expresses the beliefs of each religion.

Explain one similarity or difference in how both works of art are used in the practices of the religions with which they are associated. Use specific contextual evidence from both the Reliquary of Sainte-Foy and your selected work to support your explanation.

When identifying the work you select, you should try to include all of the following identifiers: title or designation, name of the architect and/or culture of origin, date of creation, and materials. You will earn credit for the identification if you provide at least two accurate identifiers, but you will not be penalized if any additional identifiers you provide are inaccurate. If you select a work from the list below, you must include at least two accurate identifiers beyond those that are given.

2. Throughout history, artists have created works of art that represent important members of society in order to honor them.

Select and completely identify one of the objects from the list below or any other relevant work from Africa (1100–1980 C.E.) that was created to honor an important individual.

Explain how the object chosen honors a specific important member of the African society in which it was created.

In your response, you should do the following:

- Provide two accurate identifiers for the work of art you have selected.
- Respond to the prompt with an art historically defensible claim or thesis that establishes a line of reasoning.
- Support your claim with at least two examples of relevant visual and/or contextual evidence.
- Explain how the evidence supports the claim.
- Corroborate or qualify your claim by explaining relevant connections, providing nuance, or considering diverse views.

When identifying the work you select, you should try to include all of the following identifiers: title or designation, artist, culture of origin, date of creation, and materials. You will earn credit for the identification if you provide at least two accurate identifiers, but you will not be penalized if any additional identifiers you provide are inaccurate.
