

GET READY FOR THE 2019-20 SCHOOL YEAR

Professional Learning Opportunities and Resources for AP Teachers

AP teachers can use these resources and professional development sessions to learn about changes coming to AP in the 2019-20 school year, including important changes in the AP calendar and new classroom resources and supports.

Live Now	VIDEO: Video Introduction to New Course and Exam Descriptions Take a tour of the updated CEDs, including course content and skills and how they will be assessed on the exam. collegeboard.org/ap-resources-videos VIDEOS AND DOWNLOADS: Course Update Videos Learn about updates and the new resources available for your AP course, if applicable. collegeboard.org/ap-course-index VIDEOS: Tools for AP Teachers The College Board worked with AP educators to develop tools to help students learn college-level content and skills. Watch these videos to learn about the new resources, including unit guides, Personal Progress Checks, and the AP Question Bank: collegeboard.org/ap-resources-videos
May 20	DOWNLOAD: Course and Exam Descriptions Updated course and exam descriptions outlining course content and units will be available on AP Central[®]. apcentral.collegeboard.org/courses TUTORIAL: Interactive Course and Exam Description Tutorials Self-guided tutorials to interpret the course and exam description and how to use it in the classroom. apcentral.collegeboard.org/courses
June–July	IN-PERSON: AP Summer Institutes* Week-long training events for AP teachers. A portion of the institutes will focus on the changes to AP in the 2019-20 school year. collegeboard.org/apsi
Aug 1	TUTORIAL: Self-Guided Tutorials Self-guided tutorials that walk teachers through the new instructional resources.

*There's a fee to attend AP Summer Institutes. Information on the changes to AP is also available through free opportunities and resources.