

SAMPLE SYLLABUS #1

AP[®] U.S. History

Curricular Requirements

CR1	The teacher and students have access to a college-level U.S. history textbook, diverse primary sources, and multiple secondary sources written by historians or scholars interpreting the past.	See pages: 4, 6, 7, 8, 16, 20
CR2	The course provides opportunities to develop student understanding of the required content outlined in each of the units described in the AP Course and Exam Description (CED).	See pages: 2, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 21, 23
CR3	The course provides opportunities to develop student understanding of the course themes.	See pages: 7, 8, 10, 12, 16, 19, 23
CR4	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 1: Developments and Processes.	See page: 7
CR5	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 2: Sourcing and Situation.	See pages: 10, 16
CR6	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 3: Claims and Evidence in Sources.	See pages: 14, 25
CR7	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 4: Contextualization.	See page: 10
CR8	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 5: Making Connections through the application of the three historical reasoning processes (comparison, causation, continuity and change).	See pages: 14, 16, 20
CR9	The course provides opportunities for students to develop Historical Thinking Skill 6: Argumentation.	See pages: 20, 23

Advanced Placement U.S. History Sample Syllabus #1

Course Description:

The Advanced Placement U.S. History course is designed to provide students with the analytic skills and factual knowledge necessary to deal critically with the problems and materials in U.S. history. The program prepares students for intermediate and advanced college courses by making demands upon them equivalent to those made by full-year introductory college courses.

Units covered in AP U.S. History	CR2	Weight on Exam
Unit 1: Period 1	1491-1607	4-6%
Unit 2: Period 2	1607-1754	6-8%
Unit 3: Period 3	1754-1800	10-17%
Unit 4: Period 4	1800-1848	10-17%
Unit 5: Period 5	1844-1877	10-17%
Unit 6: Period 6	1865-1898	10-17%
Unit 7: Period 7	1890-1945	10-17%
Unit 8: Period 8	1945-1980	10-17%
Unit 9: Period 9	1980-Present	4-6%

CR2

The syllabus must include an outline of course content by unit title or topic using any organizational approach to demonstrate the inclusion of required course content from pre-Columbian North American history into the 21st century.

Themes of AP U.S. History, which will be imbedded in all activities in the class. These themes drive the curriculum throughout the school year:

Theme 1 American and National Identity (NAT):

Theme focuses on how and why definitions of American and national identity and values have developed among diverse and changing population of North America. Theme also focuses on related topics such as citizenship, constitutionalism, foreign policy, assimilation, and American exceptionalism.

Theme 2 Work, Exchange and Technology (WXT):

Theme focuses on the factors behind the development of systems of economic exchange—particularly the role of technology, economic markets, and government.

Theme 3 Geography and the Environment (GEO):

Theme focuses on the role of geography and both the natural and human-made environments in the social and political developments in what would become the U.S.

Theme 4 Migration and Settlement (MIG):

Theme focuses on why and how the various people who moved to and within the U.S. both adapted to and transformed their new social and physical environments.

Theme 5 Politics and Power (PCE):

Theme focuses on how different social and political groups have influenced society and government in the United States as well as how political beliefs and institutions have changed over time.

Theme 6 America in the World (WOR):

Theme focuses on the interactions between nations that affected North American history in the colonial period. Theme also focuses on the influence of the U.S. on world affairs.

Theme 7—American and Regional Culture (ARC):

Theme focuses on the how and why national, regional, and group cultures developed and changed as well as how culture has shaped government policy and the economy.

Theme 8—Social Structures (SOC):

Theme focuses on how and why systems of social organization develop and change as well as the impact that these systems have on broader society.

AP Historical Thinking Skills:

All students will need to master these skills to be successful in the AP U.S. History course. All assignments and assessments will focus on these skills:

Skill 1: Development and Processes—Identify and explain historical developments and processes.

- 1.A Identify a historical concept, development, or process.
- 1.B Explain a historical concept, development, or process.

Skill 2: Sourcing and Situation—Analyze sourcing and situation of primary and secondary sources.

- 2.A Identify a source's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience.
- 2.B Explain the point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience of a source.
- 2.C Explain the significance of a source's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience, including how these might limit the use(s) of a source.

Skill 3: Claims and Evidence in Sources—Analyze arguments in primary and secondary sources.

- 3.A Identify and describe a claim and/or argument in a text-based or non-text-based source.
- 3.B Identify the evidence used in a source to support an argument.
- 3.C Compare the arguments or main ideas of two sources.
- 3.D Explain how claims or evidence support, modify, or refute a source's argument.

Skill 4: Contextualization—Analyze the context of historical events, developments, or processes.

- 4.A Identify and describe a historical context for a specific historical development or process.
- 4.B Explain how a specific historical development or process is situated within a broader historical context.

Skill 5: Making Connections—Using historical reasoning processes (comparison, causation, continuity and change), analyze patterns and connections between and among historical developments and processes.

- 5.A Identify patterns among or connections between historical developments and processes.
- 5.B Explain how a historical development or process relates to another historical development or process.

Skill 6: Argumentation—Develop an argument.

6.A Make a historically defensible claim.

6.B Support an argument using specific and relevant evidence.

- Describe specific examples of historically relevant evidence.
- Explain how specific examples of historically relevant evidence support an argument.

6.C Use historical reasoning to explain relationships among pieces of historical evidence.

6.D Corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument using diverse and alternative evidence in order to develop a complex argument.

This argument might:

- Explain nuance of an issue by analyzing multiple variables.
- Explain relevant and insightful connections within and across periods.
- Explain the relative historical significance of a source's credibility and limitations.
- Explain how or why a historical claim or argument is or is not effective.

Primary Textbook:

The Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History AP U.S. History Study Guide.

Assessments:

Student Practice

Throughout each unit, Topic Questions will be provided to help students check their understanding. The Topic Questions are especially useful for confirming understanding of difficult or foundational topics before moving on to new content or skills that build upon prior topics. Topic Questions can be assigned before, during, or after a lesson, and as in-class work or homework. Students will get rationales for each Topic Question that will help them understand why an answer is correct or incorrect, and their results will reveal misunderstandings to help them target the content and skills needed for additional practice.

At the end of each unit or at key points within a unit, Personal Progress Checks will be provided in class or as homework assignments in AP Classroom. Students will get a personal report with feedback on every topic, skill, and question that they can use to chart their progress, and their results will come with rationales that explain every question's answer. One to two class periods are set aside to re-teach skills based on the results of the Personal Progress Checks.

CR1

The syllabus must include the following:

1. Title, author, and publication date of a college-level U.S. history textbook.
2. Specific examples of primary sources from each category, clearly identified:
 - Textual (documents)
 - Visual (images or artwork)
 - Maps
 - Quantitative (charts, tables, graphs)—student-generated sources are not acceptable
3. Specific examples (title and author) of at least two scholarly secondary sources beyond the course textbook (e.g., journal articles, critical reviews, monographs).

Unit Tests:

Most unit tests will include questions similar to past AP U.S. History Exams. Tests will be given approximately every three weeks and are cumulative.

Essays:

Long essay questions (LEQs) and document-based questions (DBQs). All LEQs and DBQs will be completed by participation in groups, pairs, or class discussions. In addition, DBQs and LEQs will be used for unit tests. DBQs will be used to assess students' ability to explain the author's point of view, purpose, audience, and/or historical situation.

Short-Answer Questions (SAQs):

These are warm-up questions or bell ringers for the class discussion. They will also be used as test questions with the multiple-choice unit tests.

Oral Exams:

All oral exams will be based on former LEQs and will be completed in groups of 3–4 students. The LEQ test will be given after the oral exam in conjunction with the multiple-choice test if time permits.

Daily Discussions:

Each day students will discuss the class with a series of Socratic questions based on lecture, readings, vocabulary, SAQs, LEQs, and DBQs. They may also come from primary documents that students read in each unit.

Weekly Quizzes:

Weekly vocabulary quizzes based on the daily textbook readings.

Weekly after-school reviews of past quizzes, DBQs, LEQs, and SAQs, are one hour in length from 2:30 to 3:30. These after-school reviews may take place from November to May of each week after school. These reviews are voluntary for students and students receive extra credit for attendance.

Period 1/Unit 1: 1491–1607 CR2

Chapter 1, Brinkley:

“Pre-Columbian Societies”/ “The Collusion of Cultures”—Early inhabitants of the Americas; American Indian empires in Mesoamerica, the Southwest, and the Mississippi; and American Indian cultures of North America at the time of European Contact.

Chapter 2, Brinkley:

“Transatlantic encounters and colonial beginnings, 1492–1690”/ “Translations and Borderlands”—First European contacts with North Americans; Spain's Empire in North America.

	Topics	Skills
1.1	Contextualizing Period 1	4.A
1.2	Native American Societies Before European Contact	1.A
1.3	European Exploration in the Americas	1.A
1.4	Columbian Exchange, Spanish Exploration, and Conquest	3.A
1.5	Labor, Slavery, and Caste in the Spanish Colonial System	5.A
1.6	Cultural Interactions Between Europeans, Native Americans, and Africans	3.B
1.7	Causation in the Period 1	6.A

Learning Objectives for Unit 1:

- Explain the context for European encounters in the Americas from 1491 to 1607.
- Explain how and why various native populations in the period before European contact interacted with the natural environment in North America.
- Explain the causes of exploration and conquest of the New World by various European nations.
- Explain causes of the Columbian Exchange and its effect on Europe and the Americas during the period after 1492.
- Explain how the growth of the Spanish Empire in North America shaped the development of social and economic structures over time.
- Explain how and why European and Native American perspectives of others developed and changed in the period.
- Explain the effects of the development of transatlantic voyages from 1491 to 1607.

Unit 1 Activities:

Watch Unit 1/Period 1 video from Gilder Lehrman website for AP U.S. History.

Have students watch AP U.S. History Study Guide Introduction and Period 1 videos: 1491—1607. This Gilder Lehrman website will give students videos, timelines, and primary sources. Students will take notes and discuss the topics presented during the video. Students will work in groups of 3–4 students to choose one primary document from the Gilder Lehrman Study Guide and create a gallery walk for presentation of each document chosen by student groups. Illustrations, written documents, and maps would be acceptable for discussion and gallery walk. (Skill 4)

Some possible examples of primary documents and essays from ap.gilderlehrman.org (Period 1):

- Landing of Columbus, 1492
- The Doctrine of Discovery, 1493 CR1
- Columbus reports on his first voyage, 1493
- Spain authorizes Coronado's conquest in the Southwest, 1540
- Bartolome de Las Casas debates the subjugation of the Indians, 1550
- Secotan, an Algonquian village, c. 1585
- The Spanish Armada, 1588
- Map of the New World, with European settlements and American Indian tribes, 1730 CR1
- The Middle Passage, 1749
- Indian Slavery in the Americas

Students will read and discuss primary document: De Indis, Francisco de Vitoria, 1532. Questions are from teachingamericanhistory.org.

Sample questions for class to discuss in a Socratic seminar:

How does Francisco de Vitoria characterize the cultural interactions between Europeans and Native Americans? Identify the evidence the author used in the source to support his argument. (Skill 3)

Students will read article, “1491” by Charles C. Mann, March 2002 issue. Students will read Mann and write five questions to discuss in the class the following day. Students will then complete a think-pair-share. This will allow small groups to discuss their questions and answers in class. (Skill 1) CR1

(WOR) Group Discussion. “Discuss the motives for European exploration in the Americas.” (Skill 1) CR3 CR4

Unit 1 Assessments

Complete Personal Progress Check MCQ for Unit 1.

Complete Personal Progress Check FRQ A for Unit 1.

Complete Personal Progress Check FRQ B for Unit 1.

Take Unit 1 Test.

Unit 2/Period 2: 1607–1754 CR2

Brinkley, Chapter 3:

“Colonial North America 1690–1754”/ “Society and Culture in Provincial America”—Population growth and immigration; transatlantic trade and growth of seaports; the 18th century back country; growth of plantation economies and slave societies; the Enlightenment and the Great Awakening; and colonial governments and imperial policy in British North America.

	Topics	Skills

- Explain how and why environmental and other factors shaped the development and expansion of various British colonies that developed and expanded from 1607 to 1754.
- Explain the causes and effects of transatlantic trade over time.

CR3

The syllabus must include eight student activities (e.g., essays, classroom debates, oral presentations, etc.), each of which is appropriately related to one of the eight themes. Each activity must be labeled with the related theme. All course themes must be represented in these activities.

CR4

The syllabus must provide a brief description of at least one activity (e.g., essays, classroom debates, oral presentations, etc.) in which students identify and explain historical developments and processes. At least one activity must be labeled with Skill 1.

- Explain how and why interactions between various European nations and American Indians changed over time.
- Explain the causes and effects of slavery in the various British colonial regions.
- Explain how enslaved peoples responded to slavery.
- Explain how and why the movement of a variety of people and ideas across the Atlantic contributed to the development of American culture over time.
- Explain how and why the different goals and interests of European leaders and colonists affected how they viewed themselves and their relationship with Britain.
- Compare the effects of the development of colonial society in the various regions of North America.

Unit 2 Activities:

(MIG) Watch the Gilder Lehrman video for Period 2 (1607–1754).

After the video, students will take notes and discuss why and how Europeans and Indigenous peoples moved, maneuvered, and fought for dominance, control, and security in North America (ap.gilderlehrman.org). CR3

Some examples of primary documents and essays for students to read and discuss in this unit/period:

- The Puritans and Dissent: The Cases of Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson
- The Origins of Slavery
- A Jamestown settler describes life in Virginia, 1622
- John Winthrop describes life in Boston, 1634

- Explain the causes and effects of westward expansion from 1844 to 1877.
- Explain the causes and effects of the Mexican–American War.
- Explain the similarities and differences in how regional attitudes affected federal policy in the period after the Mexican–American War.
- Explain the effects of immigration from various parts of the world on American culture from 1844 to 1877.
- Explain how regional differences related to slavery caused tension in the years leading up to the Civil War.
- Explain the political causes of the Civil War.
- Describe the effects of Lincoln’s election.
- Explain the various factors that contributed to the Union victory in the Civil War.
- Explain how Lincoln’s leadership during the Civil War impacted American ideals over the course of the war.
- Explain the effects of government policy during Reconstruction on society from 1865 to 1877.
- Explain how and why Reconstruction resulted in continuity and change in regional and national understandings of what it meant to be American.
- Compare the relative significance of the effects of the Civil War on American values.

Unit 5 Activities:

Timeline review. Students will create a timeline of the events that led to the Civil War and use captioned photographs, illustrations, and political cartoons to explain the major continuities and changes of government policy of the period. Students will work in small groups to create the timeline for this time period. (Skill 5: Continuity and Change) CR8

(ARC) In-class DBQ activity/homework. Analyze DBQ on the Civil War. This has several primary documents to which students may apply the HIPPO worksheet with a partner or small group. The DBQ students may answer is: “In what ways did African Americans shape the course and consequences of the Civil War? Confine your answer to the years from 1861 to 1870.” The primary documents are Major General Benjamin Butler, report to the Secretary of War, 1861; Resolution of African Americans in Newtown, NY, 1862; Abraham Lincoln, published letter, 1863; Republican Party platform, 1864; Charlotte Forten, African American teacher in the South Carolina Sea Islands, 1864; Article in The New York Times, 1864; Illustration by Thomas Nast, Harper’s Weekly, “And Not This Man?” 1865; Proceedings of the Convention of the Colored People of Virginia, 1865; Affidavit of Rebecca Parsons, former enslaved person, 1867; and a Map of African American and White Participation in Constitutional Conventions, 1867 to 1868. Students may write their essay in a pair or for homework. (Skill 6)

In-class debates from Taking Sides. There are two debate topics for this unit—students may participate in groups, pairs or the entire class, depending on class size. (Skill 3) CR6

Debate topics:

Students may conduct their own research and/or use reading material and essays provided by Taking Sides.

- “Was the Mexican War an Exercise in American Imperialism?” (pages 213–228)
 - YES: Ramón Eduardo Ruiz, from “Manifest Destiny and the Mexican War,” Dorsey Press (1988)
 - NO: Norman A. Graebner, from “The Mexican War: A Study in Causation,” Pacific Historical Review (1980)

CR8

The syllabus must describe at least one activity (e.g., essays, classroom debates, oral presentations, etc.) requiring students to analyze historical patterns of both continuity and change within one time period or across multiple time periods. At least one activity must be labeled with Skill 5: Continuity and Change.

CR6

The syllabus must provide a brief description of at least one activity (e.g., essays, classroom debates, oral presentations, etc.) where students analyze an argument or claim in one or more scholarly secondary sources. The syllabus must cite (author and title) or describe the secondary source used for the activity. At least one activity must be labeled with Skill 3.

- “Did Reconstruction Fail as a Result of Racism?” (pages 288–300)
 - YES: Lisa J. McLeod, from “Transubstantiation of Andrew Johnson: White Epistemic Failure in Du Bois’ Black Reconstruction,” Phylon (2014)
 - NO: Adam Fairclough, from “Was the Grant of Black Suffrage a Political Error? Reconsidering the Views of John W. Burgess, William A. Dunning, and Eric Foner on Congressional Reconstruction,” Journal of the Historical Society (2012)

- People’s Party campaign poster, 1892
- Campaign for the African American vote in Georgia, 1894
- William Jennings Bryan and the ideals of the Declaration of Independence, 1895

Timeline review. Students may create a timeline of the events that took place in Unit 6 and use photographs, illustrations, and political cartoons on the timeline. Students will work in small groups to create the timeline for this time period. (Skill 1)

(SOC) Graphic Organizer: Evaluate the similarities and differences of the responses of various segments of the U.S. population to immigration in the period from 1865 to 1898. Students should choose a graphic organizer that presents the response in a logical way and be prepared to share their finding with the class. (Skill 5) CR3 CR8

In-class debates. Students may work in small groups and/or pairs to read secondary documents from Taking Sides: Clashing Views in United States History, Volume 2: Reconstruction to the Present, and debate the topic in class. Students will go on to compare the authors’ purpose in each excerpt. (Skill 2) CR5

The syllabus must describe at least one activity (e.g., essays, classroom debates, oral presentations, etc.) requiring students to analyze both similarities and differences of related historical developments and processes across regions, periods, or societies (or within one society). At least one activity must be labeled with Skill 5: Comparison.

CR5

The syllabus must describe at least one activity in which students analyze a scholarly secondary source for at least one of the following features: author’s point of view, author’s purpose, audience, and historical situation. The syllabus must cite (author and title) or describe the secondary source used for the activity. At least one activity must be labeled with Skill 2.

- “Did a New South Emerge Following Reconstruction?” (pages 30–47)
 - Yes: Ronald D. Eller, from “A Magnificent Field for Capitalists,” in Miners, Millhands, and Mountaineers: Industrialization of the Appalachian South, 1880–1930, University of Tennessee Press (1982)
 - No: James Tice Moore, from “Redeemers Reconsidered: Change and Continuity in the Democratic South, 1870–1900,” Journal of Southern History (1978)

(SOC) “Evening party” reenactment. Students choose a person in the period who was affected by the industrial movement. For example, students may choose political leaders, business leaders, union leaders, and reform leaders. Students may choose both women and men of this time period. Students will research a document related to the person and act them out in an “evening party” or debate. Students may also dress their part to show the class how he/she would have dressed and acted during this time period. The students may also wear a nametag with facts about their person they chose to be for this activity. (Skill 4)

- Theodore Dreiser, Sister Carrie, a novel, 1900
- Photograph of “Female Typists,” 1902

(PCE) In-class debate from Taking Sides, Volume 2. Students may use documents and secondary sources from both Gilder Lehrman and Teaching American History websites. They may also use articles from the chapter in which the debate question is found. Students may work in groups or pairs for the debates for Unit 7/Period 7. (Skill 5)

- “Did the New Deal Prolong the Great Depression?” (pages 174–193)
- Yes: Gary Dean Best, from Pride, Prejudice, and Politics: Roosevelt versus Recovery, 1933–1938, Praeger (1990)
- No: David M. Kennedy, from “What the New Deal Did,” Political Science Quarterly (2009)

(WOR) In-class LEQ. From College Board: “Evaluate the extent to which U.S. participation in the First World War (1917–1918) marked a turning point in the nation’s role in world affairs. In the development of your argument, explain what changed and stayed the same from the period immediately before the war and immediately after it.” The essay will be evaluated using the current AP History rubric. (Skill 6) CR9

(SOC) Research Activity “Analyze the home-front experiences of the following groups during the Second World War.”

- African Americans
- Japanese Americans
- Jewish Americans
- Mexican Americans

Students will work in pairs or small groups to create an outline of primary and secondary source documents to answer this question. After the students complete the review, they may write an essay in 40 minutes to prepare for the Unit 7 test. (Skill 1)

Essay. In 60 minutes, students analyze documents and answer the following essay question: “What economic forces caused FDR’s administration to respond to the problems of the Great Depression in the way it did? How effective were these responses? How did they change the role of the federal government? Use the documents and your knowledge of the period 1929–1941 to construct your essay.” (Skill 5: Causation) CR8

The following documents that may be analyzed as a class activity before students write this essay:

- Meridel Lesueur, New Masses, January 1932
- Letter to Senator Robert Wagner, March 1934
- Political Cartoon, The Evening Star, April 26, 1934
- William Lloyd Garrison, Jr., “The Hand of Improvidence,” The Nation, 1934
